

Keeping Up With Torrance High

By RAY DAVIS

Last Friday the social arts class had its first luncheon in the school dining room at 12 noon. Laurella Lancaster and Louis Zamperini acted as hostess and host. The meal and decoration were in charge of Laurella and Louis. The table was attractively arranged in Halloween colors and the food contained Halloween requirements. With the faculty as guests and several students helping out, "a good time was had by all."

Our first demonstration day was held on October 24 and was a great success. Some of the schools represented were Narbonne, Gardena, Washington, Banning and San Pedro. The supervisor, Miss Dowling, complimented Torrance high school and asked to have the demonstration repeated before a larger group of teachers, including some student teachers from the university. She mentioned especially the variety of ideas and the progressiveness shown.

The demonstration was begun promptly at 8:30 in the library by Miss Evan Jones. One of the most interesting and entertaining demonstrations given was that of one Miss Burnham's classes on "Terminal Activities on Colonial Life." The class had worked alone and written little plays which were given very well; so well that Miss Dowling asked to have them copied and sent to her so that she could distribute them among other schools. Mrs. Morse held a similar demonstration on "Ivanhoe," with original plays and talks. Mrs. Allen demonstrated the use and value of the social science bungalow.

Mrs. Young in her social problems class, gave "Women in Industry," "Elizabethan Solutions for Youth's Problems of Today," was the subject of the play in Miss Mills' English literature class.

At 11:30 the visitors adjourned to the social science bungalow where discussion was in order. Mrs. Weyvel prepared and served a very nice lunch including a Halloween salad and cake.

With the Marine League title safely tucked away, the 1935 edition of Bernie Donahue's squad have begun tedious practice which the boys hope will net them the championship of the Pacific Coast League. Tomorrow the team will play Bell high school's eleven on Bell's field. Last year the Tartars journeyed to South Gate to take possession of the Pacific Coast League and every fan of the ### Resident Ten Years Passes Away Sat.

William James Corbitt died Saturday at 4 p. m. in the sanitarium at Monrovia, where he had been in failing health for the past few months. Death was hastened by a fall Thursday evening at which time his hip was broken. For ten years Mr. and Mrs. Corbitt made their home at 1319 Arlington avenue. Two years ago Mr. Corbitt's failing health caused him to enter a sanitarium at Arcadia, where he remained until that institution changed management several months ago.

Mr. Corbitt was born March 1, 1863 in Rochester, New York. In 1887 he married Miss Nannie J. McCandless in Buffalo, New York. The couple went to Oil City, Pennsylvania, where for 30 years Mr. Corbitt served as lease foreman for Continental Refining Company. In 1925 the family came to California and purchased the Stevenson home on Arlington avenue. Mr. Corbitt leaves beside his wife, Nannie McCandless Corbitt, two daughters, Mrs. Mable Kaufmann, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Mildred Colburn, of Torrance; and two sons, Lester J. Corbitt, of Detroit, and William G. Corbitt, of Casper, Wyoming, who arrived here Tuesday morning to attend the last rites.

Funeral services were held from Stone & Myers mortuary Wednesday, at 2 p. m. Interment at Angelus Abbey mausoleum, at Long Beach.

Season tickets will not be accepted for the Bell game, and no student body tickets will be for sale at the gate. Those who wish to attend the game should get their tickets here. The usual price of admission, 25 cents, will be charged.

Two years ago when Torrance played Bell, the final gun left the score 103-0 with Bell on the long end of the score. This year the team is going to try to make the score the same with the Tartars on the big end.

Jack Piper, the little man who makes all youse guys yell at the games, will be on hand to lead the yells along with his cronies, Midge Higgins and Peggy Woods. These three students have done lots toward the victories of Torrance this year and possibly the spectators at tomorrow's game could give a few yells for the yell leaders. They deserve it, let them have it. We'll see you all at the game and remember—Torrance must win tomorrow!!!

Proclamation To the Citizens of Torrance

The annual Roll Call of the American National Red Cross will be held from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving.

We of this community know the tremendous amount of good accomplished by this great organization in aiding veterans of our wars, in succoring the thousands left in distress by disasters, in providing safeguards through health and safety education, and in its great character-building program of the Junior Red Cross.

The civilian relief work of the Red Cross in many communities is recognized by city officials as a potent factor in meeting present needs, and as an agency fully equipped at all times to meet any possible emergency.

Two special Red Cross projects—one for the establishment of First Aid stations on highways and the other for the prevention of accidents in homes and on farms—both with the objective of reducing the appalling loss of life—are deserving of the support of every individual in this or any other community.

The Red Cross inaugurates and maintains its several regular and special services for the benefit of humanity through the annual memberships.

As Mayor of Torrance I, therefore, call upon former members of the Red Cross to renew their memberships during the current Roll Call and urge any who, heretofore, have had no part in this noble work for mercy to enroll this year and help the cause.

Spread the word in your own circle. See that every individual receives an invitation to do his or her part.

SCOTT R. LUDLOW, Mayor of Torrance.

Contractor Will Complete Work

Improvement of Lomita boulevard in the vicinity of Narbonne avenue will be started in approximately a week from today, following the signing of the contract this week.

Delay of approximately a week was occasioned because the low bidding contractor claimed to have made an error in his calculations, and had asked permission to withdraw his bid. At a conference this week between the contractor and the county road department the contractor decided to accept it, however.

Funeral Services Held Thursday

Francis Forrester Schellenberg, age 55, died at his home, 3604 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes Estates, November 5, after a short illness. Funeral services were held today at 2:30 p. m. from the Church of the New Jerusalem, Fifth and Westmoreland, Los Angeles, cremation to follow.

He leaves his widow, three daughters, Mary, Elizabeth and Mrs. Donald Barnes, of Denver, Colorado.

HARBOR CITY sewer project to START SOON

Starting date on the $417,000 Belleporte avenue and 253rd street sanitary sewer project was expected to be announced late this week by the Works Progress Administration, following formal and final approval of the project.

The project will give employment to 886 men and require six months to complete, according to the application.

The application was filed by the city of Los Angeles, the project being inside the Shoe-string addition.

Friday of this week seven projects were to get under way, all of them in various parts of the city of Los Angeles. The Belleporte and 253rd street project is one of 10 that waited only a starting date.

Agility Retained at 89 DUNDEE, Mich. (U.P.)—At 89, Argbrose Keene boasts that he is one of Dundee's strongest men. He chins himself, touches the floor with his fingers without bending his knees and turns on Irish clog as well as the next man.

Western Avenue Grading Will Start Tomorrow

Three-Mile Strip Between Lomita and San Pedro To Be Surfaced

Grading of Western avenue between Lomita and San Pedro is to start Friday of this week with an initial crew of 75 men, it was announced this week. The county road department received word to provide supervision and minor equipment for the project, such as picks and wheelbarrows.

Heavy machinery is to be furnished by the Works Progress Administration, it was stated. When the grading is completed, it is to be finished off with a surfacing of granite and oil, which will be rolled and which will provide a satisfactory surfacing for light travel.

Length of the improvement is approximately three miles, and the alignment as shown on plans prepared by the county road department is without any major turns. The right of way was obtained only recently by the county road department. Last to deed the necessary parcels was the Standard Oil Company, because the deeds had to go to San Francisco and the red tape has required several months.

St. Louis to Keep Dairy Show ST. LOUIS, (U.P.)—Such an enormous attendance figure has been recorded for the National Dairy Show that this city is virtually assured of its becoming a permanent annual event.
